

Guideline: Criteria for Peacemaking and Social Justice Scholarships

1. Scholarship would amount to up to $200 per individual
2. Scholarship would be for Peacemaking and/or social justice purposes. This could include costs related to attendance at conferences or costs related to performing peacemaking and/or social justice ministries.
3. Requests need to be in writing and specify what the money would be used for.
4. Applicant needs to be a member of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. and /or a member of the North Puget Sound Presbytery.
5. Funds to come from Peacemaking Offerings of churches in North Puget Sound Presbytery and other donations from churches and individuals.
6. Applicant receiving the scholarship will be expected to report back to the appropriate group granting the scholarship.